

2024 강원 동계청소년올림픽대회

WINTER YOUTH OLYMPIC GAMES GANGWON 2024

01.19-02.01

Human Rights
Hotline Form

GANGWON
2024

YOUTH
OLYMPIC GAMES

@GANGWON2024

Winter Youth Olympic Games Gangwon 2024 : Respecting Human Rights

Asia's first Winter Youth Olympic Games in the Republic of Korea

Games name	Winter Youth Olympic Games Gangwon 2024
Games dates	(Fri) 19 January 2024 – (Thu) 1 February 2024, 14 days
Venues	Pyeongchang County, Gangneung City, Jeongseon County, Hoengseong County
Participation scale	15,000 people (1,803 athletes) from around 79 countries
Sports programme	7 sports, 15 disciplines, up to 81 events

The first Youth Olympic Games which pays specific attention to its "Human Rights impact"

Slogan	Grow together, Shine Forever
Vision	Youth celebrating peaceful coexistence and unity through sport to create a better future together
Human Rights Committee	Comprised of 15 human rights experts from various fields (youth, women's rights, etc.) – Role: Protect the safety of participants and monitor the overall operation of the competition
Human Rights Charter	Includes 9 practices to realize human rights protection during the Games

What situations constitute examples of human rights violations?

Physical violence	Inflicting physical pain (bodily harm, assault), confinement, enticement, etc.
Verbal abuse	Using insulting language or words that may cause harm to the body
Coercion	Disregarding a person's will or obstructing the exercise of one's rights
(Digital) sexual violence	Forcing a person to engage in sexual activity or non-penetrative sexual activity, making physical contact to make a person feel sexually humiliated, or making a person feel offended by using sexual language or action

Gangwon 2024 Human Rights Charter

- I. Everyone is equal and no discrimination shall be tolerated
- II. Children's rights shall be protected
- No form of verbal or physical harassment or abuse shall be tolerated.
- III. Rights to physical and mental health shall be upheld
- Children and youth are entitled to safeguards so that they can participate in the Games safely.
- IV. Quality labor shall be protected
- All workforce and volunteers shall have fair working conditions.
- V. Freedom of expression shall be respected
- Everyone's opinion is valued and any inappropriate situation shall be reported to the Gangwon 2024 Organising Committee.
- VI. Human rights risks shall be predicted and preemptively prevented
- VII. Shared commitment shall be made regarding human rights
- VIII. Active participation shall be ensured to solve problems effectively
- IX. Monitoring and approach to relief measures shall be practised

※ Commitment of the Gangwon 2024 Organising Committee to ensure the safety and well-being of all participants

What steps should be taken in the event of a human rights violation?

If you encounter inappropriate language or actions or come across any such situations, please do not hesitate to contact us!

How to report

- Anyone can report to the Organising Committee Human Rights Department (Planning and General Affairs Team)
- In person, phone, email, etc.
 - Tel : 033-833-1034 (Organising Committee Human Rights Desk)
 - email : singo@gangwon2024.org
 - In person reporting : Planning & General Affairs Team, 1st Floor, Holiday Inn Hotel Annexe, 325 Solbong-ro, Daegwallyeong-myeon, Pyeongchang-gun, Gangwon State (Alpensia Resort)
 - Human rights hotline form : QR Code access

Affected party

- Those who experience a human rights violation related to the Games (spectators, volunteers, participants of cultural programmes, etc.)

Complainant(Reporter)

- Victims or third parties who are aware of the violation

What we will do

- Report human rights violation (complainant) ▶ Receive report (Organising Committee)
 - ▶ Conduct victim counselling and provide necessary support. Identify actions to take, including referrals to relevant organisations that can provide support.
 - * Referral to law enforcement for criminal cases
- The confidentiality of the complainant's identity, the details of the incident, and any other information obtained during the investigation will be maintained.
- No adverse action will be taken to the complainant.
- Spatial separation (e.g. emergency shelter) will be provided, if desired by the complainant.
- Secondary victimisation will be prevented and referrals to appropriate support organisations (e.g. psychotherapy, medical facilities) will be made.
- The victim will be immediately separated and a report to law enforcement will be made depending on the severity of the incident (transfer of case).